

MARGARET HUANG

“LEARNING TO RECOGNIZE AND ACCEPT HIS WILL”

(Saturday Session 5)

My name is Margaret Huang; I was born in a town called Wufong in Taichung, Taiwan. I was raised in my grandmother's house until I was 7 years old; in a big traditional Chinese family. When I started to go into primary school, I lived with my parents with 4 younger brothers till I left to for college. Growing up in a big Chinese traditional family shaped up a lot of my personality and value; and most of important one is to be a dutiful person.

I graduated from the Chinese literature department of National Sun-Yet-Sen University in 1984. After teaching Chinese for 2 years, I got married and kept teaching Chinese in Taipei. When my first child was born, I stayed home to learn how to be a mother. After 3 years, I needed to go back to work for many reasons.

I started my manufactory career in one of the semiconductor companies located in the Hsin-Chu Science Park after my second daughter was born. From 1992 till 2002, I dedicated all my time to maintaining my family and my career conditions, and I had no other desires.

However, the gospel totally changed my life, when I was baptized in 2000. After 2 years, I decided to stop working and to be a full time mother in order to fully support my husband and my three kids. Through exercising and living the gospel, I have cultivated many interests such as reading, singing and crafting and I have truly obtained a happier and more balanced life.
